The Fall Trade.

The opening of the fall season is anxiously awaited. We have passed and are passing through a period of unparalleled dullness, dating back many months past. In the cities, the towns and the villages, there has prevailed a stagnation in business the like of which was never known before. The wheels of commerce have been clogged, money has receded from the channels of trade, and it has been a nation of debtors who have not had the means of clearing themselves of their obligations. The hitherto busy marts of trade have become deserted, and there has existed a perpetual panic which has paralyzed business in every department, created a lack of confidence, and dealt a blow to industry of all kinds, from which it will require time to recover. This stringency in money and inactivity in business, has not been marked by the boundaries of States or sections, but has been general and widespread, extending over North, South, East and West

Here in North Carolina we have seen our share, and the best that can be hoped is that the worst has been past. Our business season here dates its beginning from the first movements of cotton, and the time for this event is near at hand. In a month or six weeks, we may look for a return of something like the activity which we have known in the past, and meantime must possess our souls in patience. While we cannot expect until after the Presidential election, a return of the full volume of business of all kinds to its regular channels, a measurable recovery from the paralysis of the past six months may be confidently expected; and then, looking back over the past six months we will find some cause for self-gratulation in that while some sections have suffered disastrous failures, involving whole communities, we will have as a class, passed the crisis with firmness, and be ready to begin again where we left off at the commencement of this protracted period.

Condition of the Market House.

The market was thoroughly cleaned out yesterday, and a trip through it after this had been done, failed to discover the faintest odor of an unpleasant nature. An examination of it was made by Alderman Upchurch, Chief of Police Lee, and Street Commissioner Andrews, and the cleansing was by these officials pronounced thorough The gold dollar, offered by Mr J. A. Harris, the Clerk of the Market, once a month, for the cleanest stall, was awarded yesterday afternoon, (the end of the fiscal month) to Lewis Harrison, colored, who had had charge of the cleaning out of the stall of R. W. Smith.

While noxious odors do arise from the streets and gutters surrounding the market, it pleases us to be able to testify that within, everything is as neat as a pin, and that there are no unpleasant smells of any kind. It is kept so nicely, and the persons in it are so orderly, that a lady can at any time visit it without fear of unpleasant sights, language or conduct. For his management, Market Keeper Fowler deserves credit, and those who visit the market cannot refrain from awarding it to him.

Vance and Judge Settle meet there in debate. The fare for the round trip will be $1.50. The train will leave here in the morning and return in the evening.

NEWS FROM VANCE.

Heavy Rains—Interruptions at Yadkinville on Account of the Weather.

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.]

MT. AIRY, SURRY COUNTY, August 15, 1876

My last letter was written from Mocksville. Since then there have been heavy rains in this section, so that many who would otherwise have attended at Yadkinville, were prevented; still there was a good crowd. It was the didapper's turn to open, and he, of course, rang the changes on the interruptions at Statesville. He also, said that the crowd cheered five minutes for Jeff Davis, which is as gross a falsehood as he ever uttered. I forgot to say in my letter from that place that a drunken man cheered once for Jeff Davis, but drew from the crowd no manifestation of applause. The Captain continues to insist that the masses of the Republican party are honest, but never a word has he said as to the honesty of the office-holders. He made a charge at Yadkinville that Gov. Tilden is under indictment for the embezzlement of $1,000,000. He bids for votes from only three sources: negroes, deserters and ku klux; never have I heard him make an appeal to the Conservatives.

As Settle finished speaking, a Radical striker went around the crowd and induced quite a number of those present to leave. This meant that the Radical leaders do not want the file of their party to hear Gov. Vance speak.

Gov. Vance came to the stand under improved voice, and soon tore down all the cobwebs which had been stretched by the didapper. He was just getting well warmed up when a shower came up, and a race for the Court House commenced. Every inch was soon filled, and as soon as the crowd got settled down, the Governor continued his speech, arraigning the Judge upon the same points and questions I gave you some days since. The Governor has used all his ingenuity to get him to answer even one of them, but silence reigns supreme.

It was doubtful if we could get away from Yadkinville, last night, but Jo Dobson said we could and so we did. Though the [illegible] greatly swollen we crossed, arriving at our destination at 10 p. m. C.

At Dobson—Vance Hits the Captain With New Shot.

MT. AIRY, SURRY COUNTY, August 15, 1876.

The only new points made at Dobson, to-day, were by Gov. Vance The didapper has been harping so much on Pool and the Peabody fund, that Governor Vance has been looking the matter up. His researches showed that Pool got $1,400, but there was another school fund that North Carolina once had, that the Judge never said anything about. The State had two hundred thousand dollars in bonds of the Wilmington and Manchester Railroad. These bonds belonged to the school fund. The Legislature of 1868 authorized Gov. Holden to sell these bonds, and he sold them and got one hundred and sixty thousand dollars, and where did this school fund go? Into the special tax bonds; worth to-day just about as much as the ink would be worth at wholesale, that dotted the i's on the bonds. There is where your school money is. Stolen by the Radical Legislature of 1868.

The Dobson meeting was a good one. Three-fourths of the crowd were for Gov. Vance. The more I see of the people the more I believe that Vance is to be the next Governor, and if the enthusiasm keeps up our majority must be a large one.

The Captain has been charging that Gov. Vance ordered all distillation of spirits to stop during the war, and that his officers were authorized to cut up any stills they found. A friend of the Governor's, who had preserved some of his orders, handed me, yesterday, two of them, the first requiring militia officers to prevent the distillation of spirituous liquors from fruit, and in cases of such distillation, to seize the distilleries and arrest the offenders This order was issued for the purpose of saving the grain for the use of the women and children, and to prevent the taking of the bread from their mouths to be made into whiskey. Before issuing this order, the Governor consulted a prominent lawyer in regard to it. This lawyer told him he had a perfect right, and it was not only his right, but his duty to do so That lawyer to day is a prominent Radical, and crying "war," "war," against Vance. After issuing the order, the Governor, although he believed in the justice of it, doubted his right, and consulted other legal authority, who told him he had no right to issue it; whereupon, just six days after, he issued another order, revoking the first in every particular, for the reason that he would do nothing contrary to law.

We left Dobson this evening, and came over to this place, (12 miles distant) and have 40 miles before us to-morrow to reach Winston. C.

Jones, of Rowan—Politics in that County.

A friend in Salisbury writes us that Dr. J. W. Jones, of that county, has gone back to the flesh-pots of Egypt, eaten his words and declared for Settle! He also accepts the Radical electorship of that district. Very recently he denounced the nomination of the State ticket openly, and swore that he wou'dn't support it. This fact can be easily established, and his opponent will no doubt have the certificates. The "d—d ex-Confederate Captains!" was his own expression in speaking of the nominees of the Radical State Convention.

Our correspondent adds: "Our people are fully aroused, and Rowan will give Tilden and Vance 1,000 majority. Our peerless Robbins will soon be in the field, and then the work will commence in earnest. How the Rads do hate and fear him!"

4,000 People at Winston—Settle Worried and Worsted—Vance's Voice Clear—Settle Hoarse and Excited.

WINSTON, Aug. 17, 1876.

This has been a gala day for Winston. The Governor arrived in town at 7 a. m., and even then the streets were full and up and down the long street of Winston and Salem, the shout was "Hurrah for Vance!" A large flag was hanging from the balcony of the Merchant's Hotel, with "Tilden and Vance" inscribed on it. The Salem band was out and serenaded the Governor at 8 a. m. About 9, the Greensboro Club arrived, 500 strong, with flags and banners, All the morning 'you would hear one cheer for Settle, and in answer would come from up and down the street, "Hurrah for Vance!," from tens and fifties. It was just the biggest enthusiasm I ever saw. When Governor Vance stepped upon the stand, the fervor burst forth from thousands of throats, and the air resounded with "Hurrah for Vance!" "Hurrah for Vance!" When the didapper came on the stand, a few white Radicals and about 150 negroes started a cheer for Settle; but before they fairly drew in their breaths for a grand shout, "Hurrah for Vance!" drowned them out.

The didapper first took the stand to speak. His points were as of old, charging that the crowd at Statesville tried to break him up by hurrahing for Jeff Davis. He requested his friends to remain quiet and not cheer as he could speak just as well without it. He has made this request several times of late, and I can see but one object in it, and that is the negroes always crowd close around the stand, and they generally start the cheer; and I think he is afraid he will lose some votes, by their being so conspicuous. He claimed today that Gov. Vance endorsed all of President Johnson's acts. For this the Governor called him to order, but the Captain persisted in it and would not take it back, although the Governor denied it and requested him to do so.

Governor Vance rises The band played a lively piece, and during the As he rose, two large flags were unfurled, and several banners brought by the Tilden and Vance Club of Greensboro, were started forward and marched up to the stand.

Governor Vance's friends were wild, and thrice wild, with excitement. Enthusiasm was up to the highest point. At least 3,000 throats were shouting and cheering, and at the same time the band was playing. As the Governor stood there, surveying that vast multitude, and felt the great love and good-will the people expressed, he was much affected, and I saw a pearly tear steal down his face. Such love, such enthusiasm, I have never seen for a candidate for political honors. Were it possible (and I cannot see how it could by any chance be possible,) that Governor Vance should be defeated he will have the honor of feeling and knowing that he is the best-loved man in North Carolina.

As is his usual custom, he completely annihilated all of the Captain's speech, and worried him badly. The Governor seemed to be imbued with the enthusiasm and zeal that existed in the crowd; and his throat being in good condition, (as I heard it expressed) "he just give him thunder and lightning, and then rubbed it in." The Judge had charged that the Governor called the flag "an old rag." This was false, but he took up this point to close with, and with a splendid burst of eloquence, honored and extolled the stars and stripes in a manner that Judge Settle would almost have mortgaged another ten thousand plantation, if he could rise in his shoes and even begin to touch it.

I have not seen the Captain so worry and later through his speech, for some days, as he did yesterday. It was a glorious victory for Vance from first to last, and the depression which Settle felt, he plainly manifested. C.

Fowle at Troutman's.

Our special correspondent, traveling with Judge Fowle, sends us a lengthy and enthusiastic report of the speaking at Troutman's, Iredell county, on the 15th. Judge Fowle was accompanied from Salisbury by Hon. F. E Shober, and was met at Statesville by a delegation from the Tilden and Vance Club, from Troutman's, and was accompanied from Statesville by the Silver Cornet Band, of that place, by Lieutenant-Governor Armfield, and other prominent gentlemen. An excursion train was filled with people, who made the welkin ring with cheers and the band, under the leadership of Capt. VanPelt, was on the grounds and discoursed sweet music all day. Judge Fowle was welcomed at Troutman's by 2,000 people, and was introduced to the assemblage by Lieutenant-Governor Armfield. Of the Judge's address, our correspondent says: "I never in all my life heard such a speech. Men and women wept as if under conviction at a camp meeting. The most profound silence and wrapt attention prevailed throughout the two hours and twenty minutes occupied by this powerful speech, except when he was interrupted by applause, which was frequently long and enthusiastic. He far surpassed his famous National Hotel speech at Raleigh, which he delivered on Gov. Vance's nomination. This is remarked by all who heard both. I never saw people so much enthused from a speech."

He was followed in a short, sound and eloquent speech by Hon. F. E. Shober, and at 4 o'clock the meeting adjourned. Judge Fowle is described as having delivered a magnificent oration, and as having done much to convert Republicans and stir Democrats up to a sense of their duties in the impending struggle

Meeting of the Tilden and Vance Club.

The Tilden and Vance Club met last night at Metropolitan Hall, the President, W. H. Bledsoe, in the chair.

The Executive Committee were ordered to meet next Tuesday night, and all members of the club requested to meet with them, as there is business of importance to transact.

Running a Train Down.

Our reporter with Judge Fowle, writes that after the speaking at Troutman's, Iredell county, on the 15th, the train to convey the crowd back to Statesville, (a special) waited so long that the engineer thought all the speakers were aboard, and so moved off. When Judge Fowle Lieutenant Gov. Armfield, Hon. F. E. Shober and our reporter got to the depot, the train was gone, and they were in a dilemma. Sheriff T. A. Watts, of Iredell, was present, on horseback, and started immediately up the road in pursuit of the train which he succeeded in overtaking after a mile's hard run. It was brought back and the belated passengers got on. Upon the return to Statesville, Judge Fowle was entertained by the Tilden and Vance Club, of that place.

The Courts.

Mayor's Court—Theo. Feeves, the sister-beater whose case has been hitherto referred to, came up for trial before acting Mayor Jones. It appeared from the testimony that he was moved to the chastisement by very provoking circumstances, and the case was dismissed by the defendant paying cost.

Robt. Miligan and Theo. Spencer, colored boys, were up for assaulting in the streets a boy of their own color, knocking him down and eating his grapes. They were sentenced to 24 hours in the lock up, or to receive 39 lashes each at the hands of their respective parents They were brushed and dismissed.

Justice Magnin had only civil actions during the day.

Petition for Pardon.

A petition was received at the Executive office, yesterday, for the pardon of Peter Nicholson, colored, who was convicted at the last term of Camden Court, of stealing a horse and buggy, and sentenced to imprisonment for ten years in the Penitentiary. He committed the theft while under the influence of liquor. The petition is signed by Judge Eure, Solicitor Whedbee and all of the officers of Camden county.

Game is Game.

A gentleman of this city is out in the country for a few days, and near him is living an English gentleman and family. The Englishman went over to see him the other day, and wanted him to go hunting. They went together, and a short distance out, the English gentleman discovered a drove of half-grown guineas. He asked our friend whether he should shoot on the wing or on the ground, and the latter not seeing distinctly what he had reference to, but supposing it to be a covey of partridges, told him to take his chance and shoot them on the ground. He fired away, and as a result of the shot gathered up eight guineas, for which he subsequently settled in a Magistrate's Court.

Cotton Movements.

The receipts of cotton in this market, for the week ending last evening, were 182 bales; receipts for same week last year, 38 bales; increase in receipts for week this year, 144 bales. Whole receipts since the 1st of September, 1875, to date, 39,421 bales; whole receipts for same time last year, 34,964 bales; increase in receipts to date, this year, 5,457 bales.

The market was quiet during the greater part of the week, but closed active; prices advanced, and closed at 11¾c. for best grades. Same week last year the market closed at 13¼c. The prospects are generally good, for the growing crops, except that in some places the plant has been injured by too much rain.

Train Delayed.

The Raleigh & Gaston train arrived yesterday afternoon, an hour late. The delay was caused by its waiting an hour and three-quarters, at Weldon, for the Seaboard and Roanoke train, which was delayed just beyond Blackwater, near Franklin, in Virginia, by the burning of a sawmill, which was so close to the road as to have destroyed 30 or 40 yards of the track. The mill belonged to Neely Bros. It was a fine one and was surrounded by a large quantity of lumber, all of which was burned, inflicting upon the owners of the mill a very heavy loss.

[illegible] party at Fairfield Branch had a good day, last Thursday. T. P. Devereux, Esq., of this city, was present and made them a speech, and a Tilden and Vance Club, which is expected to do much good service during the campaign, was organized after the speaking The people all over the State, are waking up to the importance of the issues involved in the approaching contest, and clubs are organizing in nearly every township.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

From Granville—A Fraudulent Chain Gang—Good Political Feeling—Superior Court, &c.

OXFORD, N. C., Aug. 17, 1876

Mr. Editor:—Our chain gang, which if rightly managed, would have proved a great benefit to Granville county, has turned out to be a fraud. Here are the facts and figures: There were two guards and four convicts. The first guard was to receive $1.00 per day; the second guard 50 cents. They began work on the 10th of May and have drawn to date, $371.40 $310.00 has been paid for meal and bacon for this gang, (more a gang of thieves than a chain gang) and it has already cost the county about $1,000 00. This is some of the fruit of Radical rule. From all such Dick Joneeism and Chas. Colcism, Good Lord deliver us.

Tilden and Vance Clubs are being formed in the various townships and ere long we may expect to see Granville thoroughly organized. The people of this county intend to make one desperate effort to carry the county ticket in this election, and clear Granville of all such scamps and rascals as Dick Jones, and his tribe.

Superior Court still in session. The Henderson Tilden and Vance Club numbers about 175 members. Tobacco is selling well in Henderson.

THE ROBESONIAN.

Published every Wednesday morning in Lumberton, N. C., by W. Wallace McDiarmid, has the largest circulation of any paper in the State. It circulates extensively in the counties of Robeson, Richmond, Bladen, Columbus, Cumberland, Brunswick, and in the adjoining counties of Marion, Marlboro and Darlington in South Carolina. As a Local Newspaper it has no superior. It is one of the few country papers whose Editor and Publisher gives his whole time and attention to its columns.

In politics the ROBESONIAN will strive to preach the principles of the Democratic-Conservative party, and is uncompromisingly in favor of White Supremacy.

Its local columns will always teem with the latest and best news, written in a brief, intelligent and business like manner. Its editorials will be short and lucid and upon subjects which directly concern our people. As an advertising medium it is much sought after and has patronage second to no other country paper. Established in 1870, it has ever since been increasing in influence and popularity until it has reached and occupied the very front rank of North Carolina journalism.

"The Republican party is corrupt from head to foot."—A COLORED DEMOCRAT.

THE appropriation bill gives North Carolina $160,000 for River and Harbor improvements.

AMONG the items named in the appropriation bill is this: "Publication of official records of rebellion, $40,000.00."

IT appears that the salary of Solicitor-General Phillips is $7,000 a year. We should like to know how much he is assessed for campaign purposes.

THE campaign in the West is progressing as favorably as could be desired. Gov. Vance is evidently triumphing over Judge Settle in every debate.

FIFTY thousand dollars is the sum of money appropriated to defray the expenses of the impeachment of W. W. Belknap. Now, the country can see what an expensive luxury Radical officials are.

A colored Democrat wants Mr. Settle to tell the people about the way the Republicans have of getting rich,—and especially about the stealing from the poor depositors of his race through the Republican Freedmen's Savings Bank.

OUR speakers have the Republicans on the defensive. Instead of manfully defending their party, their principles and their own records, the candidates, like cowardly soldiers, dodge for safety. Press them vigorously at every point, so that they must fight or run.

THE TRUTH ABOUT IT.

The Republicans, in their desperate efforts to make capital against Governor Vance, charge that "under his authority, in 1863-'64, the wives of union men were carried to camp by force, and there kept for weeks at a time, and punished by imprisonment and otherwise, in the most brutal and inhuman manner." We quote the language of one of their spokesmen, in a communication to the Newberne Times, June 28th, 1876.

So bold in falsehood are these slanderers of our nominee for Governor, that they go so far as to give the names of the persons who were so maltreated—"by order of the said Z. B. Vance." The correspondent above referred to, in his imprudent zeal to give the falsehood the semblance of truth, says: "I give the names of some of the women who were incarcerated at Camp Bush Hill, Randolph county, in common cowpens. I give below their names; their postoffice address is Salem Church, Randolph county, N. C. The wives of F. Cody, J. L. Garner, Wm. Garner, Jesse Hill and J. Rewlins. This is only a few," says the correspondent, "compared to the whole number;" and he adds, "I believe that Hewlin's wife was one of those who had her fingers put under the fence-lock and crushed for the purpose of punishing her because she refused to tell the whereabouts of her husband."

We have taken some pains to get at the truth of this matter, in order to prove by facts what we have often asserted, that these charges are most malicious slanders. We have now got the bottom facts, and present them to our readers in the following letter from one of the most honorable, distinguished and thoroughly trustworthy gentlemen in this State:

ASHEBORO, N. C., Aug. 14, 1876.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEWS:

Dear Sir—You have called my attention to an article in the Newbern Times, of June 28th, signed "W.," which article charges that women were arrested and held in camp and cow-pens by order of Gov. Vance.

The whole story about Gov. Vance, having issued any orders to arrest women, is utterly and wilfully false.

I have enquired all over the county, and can find no one that ever heard of "Camp Bush Hill."

There is a Postoffice, Salem Church, in the southwest part of Randolph; and I have made extensive enquiry in that neighborhood, and can find no one that ever heard of "Camp Bush Hill," and none of them know of any such women as are named by "W."

The whole story about the women and Gov. Vance has this foundation and nothing more: One Alfred Pike, a militia officer, had some women arrested. Among them was the wife of William Owen, who was charged with the murder of Simmons and Saunders, in Montgomery county, near the Randolph line. It is der the fence. The others he detained in camp a few days.

I understand that immediately after Gov. Vance heard of it he ordered the parties to be arrested; and Pike was arrested, and a number of true bills were found against him; and he fled the State and has never returned.

There is not a militia officer in the county that will say that Vance ever issued any such order as "W." charges, and there is not a man in the county that believes a word of it. RANDOLPH.

The truth of the matter, then, is that during the war a militia officer tortured the wife of a murderer to force a confession from her, and that this officer was soon after arrested for the offense by order of Governor Vance, and only escaped justice by fleeing the State. And it is this fact, wherein Gov. Vance played an honorable and humane part, that the Republicans have tortured into one of the basest misrepresentations ever fabricated, even in their workshop of sin.

SAVING MILLIONS.

The Democratic cry of Reform! Retrenchment! is not idle talk, "sound and fury, signifying nothing." Its sincerity, its earnestness, its deep signification have been sharply emphasized in the action of the Democratic House of Representatives in regard to the appropriation bills.

The total reductions made by the House from the estimates submitted by the Administration are $64,346,682.06. The total reductions made by the House from last year's expenditures are $38,910,984.29. The net reductions after the Senate increased the appropriations are very nearly thirty millions of dollars, the exact figure being $29,944,252 86.

The retrenchment covers all branches of the public service. In the naval service, for instance, the appropriations are nearly $8,000,000 below Secretary Robeson's wasteful estimates. For the legislative, executive and judicial expenses of the Government, $7,000,000 less than the estimates, and nearly $3,000,000 less than passed by the Senate last year are appropriated. The army is cut down from the estimates nearly $6,000,000, with $2,000,000 nearly less appropriated than last year. The postal service is in the same ratio. The River and Harbor bill is reduced nine millions below the estimates, and over a million below last year's appropriations. The pension list, of course, cannot vary much, but is half a million below last year. The sundry civil bill comes down from thirty-two and a half millions of estimates to sixteen millions, being ten millions and a half less than the law last year called for.

Here is genuine retrenchment—something tangible—something that may be counted in dollars and cents; a net saving to the people, the tax payers, of nearly [illegible] millions of dollars in one year: Give this party sixteen years of rule, as the Republicans have had, and the country would save at this rate the enormous sum of Four Hundred and Eighty Millions!

The saving to the country, compared with last year's expenditures, is, in round numbers, thirty-eight millions. That is some of the first fruits of Democratic supremacy.

Let it be borne in mind that this splendid record of retrenchment has been made by the House in the face of a protesting Republican Senate. In this shape it goes to the country; and cannot be answered by the supporters of the Republican party.

THE RADICAL GAME.

It is stated in some of our exchanges that information has been received at Washington that the Republican leaders in this State design a repetition of the tactics of intimidation and fraud by which the State was carried in 1872.

It is said that preparations are making for an extensive system of arrests under the internal revenue law. The severity of the penalties and the difficulty of procuring bail by wholesale, as it were, it is calculated will make the parties powerless, and the Radical leaders expect to find men ready to get off from punishment by agreeing to act with the Republican party.

Let the dastardly scoundrels who have devised and propose to carry out this hellish scheme attempt it. They may catch the votes of a few craven-hearted men, but they will lose more than enough to offset their gains, from among that class of the floating vote who hate lawlessness, violence, and wickedness.

The game of intimidation will intensify the zeal of Democrats and of all liberty loving, honest or honorable men in North Carolina. We are confident of our ability to defeat such infamous expedients.

SAMUEL T. CARROW.—We clip the following from the Washington Echo:

The Raleigh News says that it has learned "that S. T. Carrow has declared for Tilden." Mistaken! The Tilden grazing fields are not such as Samuel fancies, or as he once enjoyed. Sam is for Hayes and Wheeler—of course.

We were afraid Sam would turn back to the Republican fold, when he heard that a big pile of money was coming into the State from headquarters as in 1872. But he'll be disappointed. It's all for the Cherokee Indians.

REV. GARLAND H. WHITE don't want his negro friends to vote the election, because, says he, "so long as we continue to vote to retain in office a set of thieves, just so long they will be emboldened to go on as they have for fifteen years, saying that the negro neither knows nor cares what they do."

ATTORNEY-GENERAL HARGROVE denies that he said at Oxford that he was glad that before the Robeson outlaws were killed, they had made twenty-one white Democrats "bite the dust." Will the Oxford Torchlight, or some of our Granville correspondents, come to the front with the proof? Give us a statement from persons who heard his speech.

THE Pending Amendments to the "Canby" constitution provide that white and colored children shall be kept separate in schools, and forbid marriages between whites and blacks to the third generation inclusive. Mark the man, white or black, who dares vote against these amendments. He is an enemy to both races.

A colored Democrat says: "The most of the office-holders were as poor as we are when we elected them to office, and all they have ever done for us has been to make enemies of life-time old friends, rob the treasuries both of State and Nation, leaving us to be taxed to replace what they have stolen."

THE Freedmen's Bank has been closed over two years, and the depositors have thus far received only one small dividend of twenty cents. Ask Tom Settle or Bill Smith who got the other eighty cents? May-be they will answer as Coburn L. Harris did about the location of the Penitentiary—"God Almighty knows."

ON the 19th of June, 1876, a letter in an official size envelope, stamped with 3 cents U. S. Postage and addressed "Daily NEWS, Raleigh, N. C.," was dropped into the letter-box of the Newberne Post-office. That letter has never reached us. Where is it? We demand the letter, or some account of its disappearance.

ORLANDO HUBBS, the carpet-bag Postmaster at Newberne, is also Sheriff of Craven county. He has sworn to uphold the Constitution and the laws, yet he violates both the State and Federal laws, by holding two offices at the same time.

JAMES H. HARRIS is said to have denounced Richard C. Badger in a caucus of the Republican Executive Committee. Brethren should not fall out so. And pots should not rail at kettles for being black.

BILLY SMITH said in his speech at Asheboro, that he knew the war was coming on two years before it did come. So, Billy was a prophet—"in a horn."

A REPUBLICAN editor admits that honesty is the best policy. If he had only come to that conclusion sooner, he would not now be in danger of the penitentiary.

HON. WILLIAM A. SMITH voted for the ordinance of secession. He has always been a secessionist. He secedes from each political party that he joins, so soon as they find him out.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Two serious stabbing affrays occurred in Union, last week.

Adam Emple, of Wilmington has recovered from his recent severe illness.

The next session of the Charlotte District Conference will be held in Monroe.

The Wilmingtonians have been enjoying another yacht race at Masonboro Sound.

The editor of the Pee Dee Herald complains that his manuscript is sometimes "lost" in the mails.

The negro fiend, who committed a rape on a little white girl in Union county, was caught several days ago and hanged by the citizens, white and black. Served him right.

Mr. Arthur Stephenson, of Northampton, was badly shot in the hand and shoulder, last week, from a gun which he had on a buggy with him while going deer hunting.

Charlotte Observer: Two of the excursionists, who are Roman Catholics, took advantage of their proximity to a priest, while in the city, and were joined in wedlock at St. Peter's Church last night at 8½ o'clock.

Wilmington Star: A crayon portrait of Bishop Atkinson is on exhibition at Heinsberger's book store. It is the work of Mr. Eugene L. Harris, of Granville county, and is highly creditable. Mr. Harris, we understand, has just executed a portrait of Governor Vance.

The electric machine and telescope used by John Wesley are in the museum at Trinity College, says the Regulator. They were presented by Rev. R. T. Heflin with satisfactory evidence that they belonged to Wesley. They have not much resemblance to the instruments in use these days.

Wilmington Star: Mr. Henry Nutt, Chairman of the Committee on Bar and River Improvements of the Chamber of Commerce of this city, has been officially notified of the appropriation by Congress of the additional sum of $132,500 for the continuance of the work for the improvement of Cape Fear River and Harbor.

Charlotte Observer: The fiend who so [illegible] Jefferson, South Carolina, a few days since, was captured by the party of men in pursuit of him, on last Monday, the 14th inst., on the White Store road, near the Anson county line. When the party was last heard from, they were bearing him to prison.

A grand outpouring of the people from all parts of Cabarrus and Stanly counties assembled in Mount Pleasant on Thursday last, the occasion of the Masonic celebration in that place. Sixteen hundred people were present. Addresses were delivered by Rev. Dr. L. A. Bikle and Rev. T. P. Ricaud. A collection was taken for the Oxford Orphan Asylum.

CAMPAIGN NOTES.

The Wadesboro Herald thus alludes to Hester: Hester—the swindler, pimp and spy—Jeemes Sinkler, the ex-preacher.

Hon. George Davis will soon take the stump for Tilden and Vance.

During the absence of A. W. Graham, Chairman of the Orange County Democratic Executive Committee, the editor of the Durham Tobacco Plant will discharge the duties incumbent upon that position. All communications for the present should therefore be directed to Caleb B. Green, Durham, N. C.

One of the most influential Republicans in Orange, and one who has done more hard work for his party than any man in the county, does not hesitate to say that the prospects for the success of Republicanism are exceedingly gloomy. He came home from the State Convention jubilant, confident that they were going to sweep things, but, he says, there has been a mighty change. He knows whereof he speaks, and he knows that Republicanism will be buried in November next. —Durham Tobacco Plant.

Starvation Threatening the Turks—Servia Ready to Treat for Peace—Frenchmen Held in Africa—DeCissy's Resignation not Voluntary—Reports of Servian Defeats Untrue.

LONDON, Aug. 18.—A correspondent of the Daily News writes from Philippopolis, under date of August 11th, that the condition of the Turkish army at Nish is deplorable, and starvation is threatening. The country around does not afford supplies of forage. Along the road between Nish and Sofia, the villages have all been abandoned. The army will soon be obliged to advance into Servian territory for supplies, or retreat. Through the efforts of Gleichuyler, of the American legation, the release of all prisoners, except those in the first category, has been ordered.

A despatch to the Times, from Belgrade, says Prince Milan has received from several, if not from all the powers, congratulations upon the birth of an heir, all of which contain expressions leaving no doubt in the Prince that the powers are desirous of seeing an end of a war which is dangerous to the general peace of Europe. The result is, that Servia is ready to treat for peace, but will not consent, however, to the deposition of Prince Milan, or the sacrifice of any territory, nor will she submit to Turkish administration. Every day that the war is prolonged, adds to the danger of a general European conflagration.

LONDON, Aug. 16.—The Daily Telegraph has a dispatch from Belgrade, saying that the Turks have surrounded Milanovatz, on the Danube. The Servians are defending the town, but if it should fall, the Turkish advance on Belgrade and Seonerdria, could not be prevented.

A dispatch to the Standard from Madeira says a steamer has arrived there from Africa. Reports are quiet at Whydah. The King of Dahomey holds four Frenchmen as hostages, and threaten to kill them if the British squadron fire upon the natives.

LONDON, Aug. 18.—A dispatch to the Reuters Telegram Company from Paris, says Gen. DeCissy's resignation of the War Department was not voluntary, as President McMahon requested it. This action is construed to mean that the President wishes his War Ministry to be no longer subject to parliamentary vicissitudes and change during the recess, and the selection of Gen. Berthaut, who is not a member of Parliament, excites considerable comment, particularly among the Republicans. The organization of the War Department, and the large extension of the powers of the Chief of General Staff, is shortly expected, in consonance with the views of Duke Dandeffret Pasquier and M. Freycinet, which General Berehont shares. It is expected that General DeCissy will be assigned to one of the great military commands at the approaching periodical change of those posts.

BELGRADE Aug. 18.—Official dispatches received here say the reports that the Servians were defeated on the River Drina, and at Bauja, and that the Turkish corps are advancing towards Kruschevatz, are pure inventions. To-day the Turks attacked the out posts near Belina, and were repulsed. They attacked the Drina army yesterday near Badorina'z, and were repulsed with great loss.

NIGHT DISPATCHES.

Only a Skirmish—Milan not Inclined to Peace—Belgrade not Preparing for Seige—Disraeli's Elevation Published.

LONDON, Aug. 18.—A dispatch to the Reuter's from Belgrade, says the engagement at Badmoosatz was a mere skirmish. Prince Milan yesterday gave audience to the consuls of six powers separately. A strong pressure was brought to bear in favor of peace or an armistice, but the Prince refused.

The report is untrue that Belgrade is being prepared for a seige.

The London Official Gazette publishes Mr. Disraeli's elevation to the peerage.

The Whiskey Convicts and their Sentences.

CHICAGO, Aug. 18.—Judge Banks arrived from Washington this morning, he having been summoned there in connection with the sentences of the whiskey fraud convicts, and the efforts which their counsel were making to secure their pardons. He has no information of any pardons having been granted, but expresses the opinion that the sentences will be equalised, some of them having been considerably mitigated.

Session of an Ancient Order.

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—The Convention of the Ancient Jewish order of Kesher Shall Bargel was concluded to-day, after a four days' session. They decided to hold the next meeting at Syracuse, New York, eighteen months from this date.

WASHINGTON.

Centennial Excursion on Monday—2,500 Desertions During the Year—The Employment of Pawnee Scouts—Commission to Treat With the Sioux—The Story of Indian Fights Discredited.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—Cameron has gone to Harrisburg. Chandler has gone to New York.

Speaker Kerr will probably not live through the night.

The seventh of the series of Centennial excursions inaugurated by the Virginia Midland Route, is registered at the National Hotel, under charge of W. D. Chipley, General Southern agent of the line. The party go to Philadelphia to-day by special train over the Baltimore and Ohio Road. The party includes persons from twenty different points in Alabama and Georgia and other States.

General Townsend reports 2,500 desertions during the past year. He says the army being small and scattered, there is little bar to desertion except the fact that the deserters may at any time be arrested.

Sheridan telegraphs Sherman to ask the Commissioner of Indian Affairs to give him permission to raise 100 Pawnee scouts. Sherman sent the letter to the Indian Commissioner endorsed: "Do you object?" Commissioner Smith telegraphs to Superintendent Nicholson to let the Pawnees go and give all the aid necessary.

Secretary Chandler has organized the commission authorized by the Indian Appropriation Bill, to treat with the Sioux. They meet in Omaha on the 8th.

The recent reports of Indian fighting, are now wholly discredited at headquarters.

MEMPHIS, TENN., Aug. 18.—Willis Jones and Marsh Walker, colored captains of base ball clubs, quarreled to-day, when Walker killed Jones with a bat, near Holly Springs.

A farmer, named McClish, was found to day, near Fort Donaldson, in a bush, with his head severed from his body. Bill Mockelell and Jack Lofly, colored, were arrested on suspicion, and confessed the murder and robbery. Mockelell had the murdered man's shoes on. They are in jail.

RALEIGH, N. C., Aug. 17, 1876.

Sir:—I am advised that C. L. Harris, Esq., Superintendent of the United States Coast Survey and Paymaster during (a) the present Administration of Gen. Grant, has this day forwarded to you a package of affidavits and certificates of his friends, among which is one containing a reflection on myself in words to the effect that he has been victimized by one Hon no."

I beg to say that I have never "set afoot" any charges against Mr. C. L. Harris. The charges referred to and thus attributed to me, were originally made by Isaac J. Young, Internal Revenue Collector of this district; and those and are substantially, that, C. L. Harris, while holding appointment as Designated Assistant Assessor of Internal Revenue, in 1874, defrauded the government on false vouchers, or fraudulent pay account, certified and sworn to by the said C. L. Harris; and that the matter came to the knowledge of himself—collector Young—as the disbursing officer who paid Harris on the fraudulent pay accounts referred to

At the beginning of President Grant's second term, in March, 1873, C. L. Harris was appointed and confirmed Collector of Internal Revenue to supercede Collector Young. It was then that Mr Young made public these charges against Mr. Harris. Though the efforts of Congressman Wm. A. Smith, then representing this district, and others, Young was able to prevent a commission issuing to Harris, and Mr. Young has held the position of Collector to the present time.

I respectfully refer you to the papers and records of your office for March, 1873, where you will, I presume, find filed the charges of Collector Young against C. L. Harris, Esq.

In December last, Mr. C. L. Harris was appointed by Secretary Bristow to be my successor as Superintendent of the Coast House and Post Office here. At that time I came at once to the rescue of the charges collector Young had previously preferred against Mr. Harris, but not until, in an interview with Collector Young, I had the full authority of that gentleman to the statement.

I have the honor to enclose copy of correspondence between the Department and myself, and I beg to call especially your attention to paragraph marked "A" on page 15, and to paragraph marked "B" on page 19, wherein the conduct of Mr. Harris, as a pretended revenue officer, is referred to.

It is but just to you and myself that I should state in conclusion, that, having been made the victim of the corrupt combination of which C. L. Harris, Esq. appears to be a central figure, the alternative was presented to me of standing by and endorsing such infamy and corruption and notoriously corrupt men, or forming new political alliances; and finding the Republican party so far as my observation goes, hopelessly under the control and domination of the most notoriously corrupt men on earth, I have united myself with the Democratic party.

I have, therefore, no personal interest in the removal of Superintendent Harris; on the contrary, every mere political consideration of this campaign would inspire in me the hope that he may be retained in the prominent public position he now occupies.

Very respectfully,
W. M. A. BEARNE.
